

SAVE THE DATE – Nov. 11-13!! Mission Training Center/L.A.P. invites you to the “MISSIONAL COMMUNITIES ADVANCE” -- a weekend of cutting-edge training on “mission community” led by a field-practitioner... PLUS breakout sessions for brainstorming with those you came with... PLUS networking with missional-leaders from across the Northwest.

Yes, you've been on lots of retreats. How many advances have you been on? Mission Training Center/L.A.P. invites you to a weekend of advancing as a Jesus-apprentice, advancing in understanding of what it means to be 'sent' by Christ to my community, and advancing in “missional community” growth. Rev. Brian Banke leads “Introducing Missional Communities,” built on his own experience growing missional communities in Iraq, Bremerton, and Tacoma, Washington.

Register as an individual – come with your group! The Mission Training Center Advance is the premier weekend for brainstorming with leaders from your faith community and networking with leaders from other faith communities. To get the most out of this weekend, attend with two or more leaders from your faith community or congregation – and receive a discount on registration!

Individual Rate: $150 before Oct. 1, 2011

Individual Rate if three or more are coming from the same faith community: $135

Rate after Oct. 1, 2011: $175

When: November 11-13, 2011

Where: Camp Kuratli, Boring, Oregon.

http://www1.usw.salvationarmy.org/usw/www_usw_kuratli.nsf/

Arrive for supper Friday evening, November 11, soak in everything all day Saturday and leave Sunday noon filled and invigorated! All of the training, networking, and breakout-sessions with two nights lodging (with linens and towels) and five meals included. Contact Lenette at lschuldheisz@cu-portland.edu to register. Go to www.missiontrainingcenter.com for more information.

Feel free to forward this information to all (men and women) apprentices of Jesus! Thanks!

May the Lord continue to bless your ministry!

Lenette