Windows on the Cross

This retreat enables participants—both men and women—to experience an intimate dialogue with God through the use of liturgy and a variety of prayer and meditation methods and stations around the cross.

Each participant will have his or her own private room to enhance the personal prayer and meditation time. Reduced interruptions allow a deep and wonderful communion with the Holy One. It is also a time to hear the Call of the Cross!

The weekend is a combination of introductory presentations; worship; private reading, meditation and journaling; spontaneous fun and laughter; and personal and group prayer and sharing in a loving and warm community. You will also enjoy the luxury of quiet walks around the retreat center; and friendly conversation. No need for watches or phones—away from the loud hustles and bustles of life.

WHAT TO EXPECT:

- ◆ 7:00 p.m. opening with devotion and orientation
- ◆ All participants are asked to stay at the retreat center
(Please plan to arrive on time and stay until the end. We want to maintain the trust and intimacy of the weekend)
- ◆ A guided rhythm of readings, private meditation and journaling, and personal and group prayer.
- ◆ Permission to adjust the schedule to meet your needs.
- ◆ Free Time to fellowship with friends.
- ◆ Opportunities for Personal Expression through writing, art, whittling, music, drama—however the spirit moves you to share!
- ◆ Small Group Sharing.
- ◆ Leisurely meals and breaks that offer great fellowship.
- ◆ Noon Sunday departure.
